

Shaker Ridge Country Club

General Club Rules

The management of the Club and its facilities, which includes the golf course, surrounding grounds, swimming pool, tennis courts and all services, are the responsibility of the Board of Governors. These rules have been adopted with the primary objective of assuring maximum comfort and enjoyment at Shaker Ridge Country Club by all members, their families and guests. This objective can be attained only through the cooperation of all members.

The President shall have the Executive Committee decide on all questions of interpretation involving these rules and shall approve any deviation in unusual cases.

1. Complaints, requests, or suggestions, which concern the administration, facilities or services of the Club, shall be made in writing to the Board of Governors.
2. Violations of Club rules by members or their guests are to be brought to the attention of the General Manager. The General Manager shall send a formal letter to the member regarding the violation. The Board of Governors shall be informed of any abuses and may take appropriate action where necessary.

Golf Course General Rules and Regulations

The Golf Professional has the ultimate responsibility for the golf course and may allow exceptions to the following rules to facilitate the optimum use of the golf course. Golf is a game for "Ladies and Gentlemen." In respect to this tradition of the game, the following rules have been adopted to insure the fullest enjoyment of golf at our Club.

General Course Rules
